DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claims 1-7 and 9-14 are objected to because of the following: in the preamble of claims 1 and 10, the words "An apparatus" should be replaced with the words "A computer program" because an apparatus is not embodied in a computer readable medium but a computer program is. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by International Publication Number WO 02/089062 by Kimmel et al. ("Kimmel").

For claim 1, Kimmel discloses an apparatus for processing color images, comprising: an input processor, configured to receive an image is received (figure 2 input image S); a Retinex-type processor, comprising: a local statistics processor, comprising a cascaded recursive filter (iterative estimator 104), and a point operation processor correcting pixels of the input image according to corresponding pixel values in the local statistics processor (108); and an output processor (111) configured to transform the corrected pixels into an output signal that is indexed to represent an intensity of a particular position in the color image (pages 12-13).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed June 26, 2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that an iterative estimator of the prior art is not a cascaded recursive filter. This is false because the estimator uses among other things the algorithm of figure 4 which uses an output as the input. With respect to the statistics processor, the prior art shows a summer 108 which adds numbers together which is a type of statistics that are processed to read on the claimed statistics processor.

Applicant argues that the claimed cascaded recursive filtering is described in figures 1b and 1c and on pages 9-10 of the specification. However, figures 1b and 1c and pages 9-10 of the specification are not part of claim 1 and there is no basis for reading these parts of the disclosure into claim 1.

Claims 2-7 and 9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. Claims 10-14 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the objection set forth in this Office action. Claims 16-24 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art does not disclose the equation of claim 2, nor the equation of claim 10, nor the equation of claim 16.

As allowable subject matter has been indicated, applicant's reply must either comply with all formal requirements or specifically traverse each requirement not complied with. See 37 CFR 1.111(b) and MPEP § 707.07(a).
